

Galleries

NORTH WALES

01

At Oriel Glasfryn Gallery we showcase the finest original Welsh art and craft including paintings, jewellery, ceramics, sculpture, glass, textiles, wood and metalwork. All of our artists are from Wales or have a strong Welsh connection. The gallery is also home to a permanent display of Welsh landscape paintings by owner and award-winning pastel artist, Dave Roberts.

02

MOSTYN is an internationally significant contemporary art gallery in the traditional seaside town of Llandudno. Six galleries merge traditional and modern architecture, and present exhibitions by artists and makers from Wales and around the world. With friendly staff, and a fabulous shop and café, it's a great way to spend an afternoon.

03

Tucked away in the cobbled streets of Conwy walled town, the Royal Cambrian Academy of Art is a centre for artistic excellence in Wales. Constituted in 1882, the academy has up to 150 members. The Royal Cambrian Academy of Art exhibits and sells academicians' work through a varied programme, culminating in the members' Annual Summer Exhibition.

04

Oriel Môn is a museum and arts centre located in Llangefni, Anglesey, Wales. A two-part centre, the History Gallery provides an insight into the island's culture, history and environment. The Art Gallery has a changing programme of exhibitions, encompassing art, craft, drama, sculpture and social history.

Galleries

northwalestourism
twristiaethgogleddcymru

Ariennir gan
Lywodraeth Cymru
Funded by Welsh Government